Definition of a Related Party

A related party is a person or entity that is related to the entity that is preparing its financial statements (the reporting entity).

1. A person or a close member of that person's family is related to a reporting entity if that person:
  - a) has control or joint control over the reporting entity;
  - b) has significant influence over the reporting entity; or
  - c) is a member of the key management personnel of the reporting entity or of a parent of the reporting entity.
2. An entity is related to a reporting entity if any of the following conditions apply:
  - a) the entity and the reporting entity are members of the same group (which means that each parent, subsidiary and fellow subsidiary is related to the others).
  - b) one entity is an associate or joint venture of the other entity (or an associate or joint venture of a member of a group of which the other entity is a member).
  - c) both entities are joint ventures of the same third party.
  - d) one entity is a joint venture of a third entity and the other entity is an associate of the third entity.
  - e) the entity is a post-employment benefit plan for the benefit of employees of either the reporting entity or an entity related to the reporting entity. If the reporting entity is itself such a plan, the sponsoring employers are also related to the reporting entity.
  - f) the entity is controlled or jointly controlled by a person identified in (1).
  - g) a person identified in (1)(a) has significant influence over the entity or is a member of the key management personnel of the entity (or of a parent of the entity).
  - h) the entity, or any member of a group of which it is a part, provides key management personnel services to the reporting entity or to the parent of the reporting entity.
